

Does your student need support?

Description of Support Service	Anticipated Activities
Mentoring	Relationship Building Grade monitoring Study/organizational Goal setting
ISAT Test Prep Lunch Bunch (offered in January And February during lunch time one day a week)	Test preparation Confidence Boosting Academic Support
Social Worker and Guidance Counselor	Provides social and emotional support for students at risk or in crisis by trained staff
Quiet Lunch	Grade level teachers monitor student attendance A teacher supervises Quiet Lunch so additional academic support is available
Informal Study Hall	Student directed study time attend instead of Social Time Academic assistance is available
Homework Club (offered in Tuesday and Thursdays after school until 4:50—students can ride the late bus home, check website for exact dates)	A teacher supervises Homework Club so additional academic support is available

The Gift of “Time” QUIET LUNCH

It's always about TIME!

TIME to complete work,

TIME to study,

TIME to review,

*TIME to keep track of assignments,
and*

TIME to plan for the week, or even the month!

Students need to have TIME to work on priorities, too!

Quiet Lunch is a lunchtime option offered to students during the lunch hours. It is a quiet lunch/study situation where students spend both lunch and social time in an assigned classroom. They have the convenience of eating lunch while working on homework and daily school projects in a

Any student with incomplete work is assigned to Quiet Lunch as an intervention to help them get back on track and caught up with class/homework.